Mayor & Councillors' Responsibilities

Many people ask us what sort of person you need to be or what is expected of an elected member. The following role description as identified by the Remuneration Authority in setting the elected members' remuneration is a guide for what is expected.

The Mayor

The mayor is elected by the district as a whole and, as one of the elected members, shares the same responsibilities as other members of the council. The mayor also has the following roles:

- presiding at council meetings including ensuring the orderly conduct of business during meetings (as determined by standing orders)
- advocating on behalf of the community involving the promotion of the community and representation of its interests. Such advocacy will be most effective where it is carried out with the knowledge and support of the council;
- spokesperson for the council
- ceremonial head of the council
- providing leadership and feedback to other elected members on teamwork and chairing of committees
- fulfilling the responsibilities of a Justice of the Peace (while the mayor holds office)
- providing leadership to the other members of the council and the people of the area
- leading the development of the council's plans, policies, and budgets for consideration by the members of the council.

The Deputy Mayor

The mayor has the power to appoint the deputy mayor. The deputy mayor exercises the same roles as other elected members, and if the mayor is absent or incapacitated, the deputy mayor must perform all of the responsibilities and duties, and may exercise the powers, of the mayor (as summarised above). The deputy mayor may be removed from office by resolution of the council.

Members Interests

Prospective candidates should be aware of the requirements of the Local Authorities (Members' Interests) Act 1968.

- Under Section 3 of the Act, elected members may not be concerned or interested in contracts made by the council when payments made for the contracts entered into during a particular year exceed $25,000 including GST. That amount may only be exceeded if the council has either obtained the prior approval of the Audit Office or, in special circumstances, obtained retrospective approval. When payments exceed $25,000 or any other approved amount, the elected member concerned is automatically disqualified from office. He or she also commits an offence if they continue to act as a member.
- Under Section 6 of the Act, elected members may not discuss or vote on any matter in which they have a pecuniary interest when it is being considered by the council or a committee. Elected members failing to observe this prohibition commit an offence and can be prosecuted. Conviction leads to disqualification from office.
- When a matter is raised at a meeting of the council or a committee in which a member has a pecuniary interest, the member prohibited from voting or discussing the matter must declare the pecuniary interest. The fact of that disclosure and abstention from discussion and voting on it is also recorded in the minutes. While it is not necessary to withdraw from the meeting, it is good practice to do so.

Health and Safety at Work Act 2015

The Health and Safety at Work Act 2015 (the Act) is part of a reform package aimed at reducing the number of serious work-related injuries and deaths in New Zealand by at least 25 percent by 2020. It came into force on 4 April 2016.

The Act is a new way of thinking about health and safety for New Zealand. The Act is designed to:

- Ensure everyone has a role to play
- Makes everyone's responsibilities clear
- Focuses on managing risk
- Requires those who create the risk to control the risk
- Requires businesses to engage with their workers and enable them to participate on an ongoing basis
- Allows flexibility in managing health and safety risks.

For elected members, the most significant implication is the introduction of the role of officer and the requirement for officers to meet due diligence duties.

What is an officer and what do they need to do?

An officer is a person who holds a very senior leadership position, and has the ability to significantly influence the management of a business. At ADC this includes elected members and the CE are officers under the Act.

Officers must ensure the business is meeting its health and safety responsibilities by doing due diligence to ensure the business understands and manages its key risks. To do this officers must take reasonable steps to:

- Acquire and keep up to date knowledge of health and safety
- Understand the operations of the business
- Ensure and check that their business has appropriate resources and processes for health and safety.

Elected members of a Council are not required to exercise due diligence over a Council Controlled Organisation (CCO) providing they are not an officer of that CCO e.g. an elected member will be an officer of a CCO if they are appointed on the Board of the CCO in an individual capacity.

ADC is proactively partnering with elected members to ensure ADC and its officers can meet their responsibilities under the Act.

Liabilities of officers under the Act

Under the Act there are a raft of offences that can be committed which carry fines (which need to be paid in some cases by the organisation and in some cases personally by the officer) and in extreme cases even jail sentences. Elected members as officers have an exemption under the Act from some of these offences. Offences that elected members as officers can be liable for include offences such as failure to comply with an improvement notice. This can be a fine up to $50,000 for an individual or $250,000 for a body corporate. Insurance is not available to cover the cost of such fines.

Inaugural Meeting

The successful candidates will take office on the day after the electoral officer gives their official notification of the result of the election. However, no person is permitted to act as a member of the council before making a declaration. This declaration will be made at the inaugural meeting, which is expected to be held in late October or early November 2019. Elected members will be contacted by staff with the key dates.

The business to be conducted at that meeting will include:

- The making and attesting of declarations required of the mayor and councillors. Traditionally, this has been a ceremonial occasion.
- A general explanation of the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987 and other laws affecting elected members.
- The fixing of the date and time of the first ordinary meeting of the council, or the adoption of the schedule of ordinary meetings.
- Appointment of the deputy mayor.

If newly elected the declaration required to be made by the mayor and councillors is as follows:

Declaration by Mayor and Councillors

I declare that I will faithfully and impartially, and according to the best of my skill and judgement, execute and perform, in the best interests of Ashburton District Council, the powers, authorities, and duties vested in or imposed upon me as mayor (or as a member) of the Ashburton District Council by virtue of the Local Government Act 2002, the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987, or any other Act.

Pre-election Report

All councils must prepare a pre-election report. The report is prepared by the chief executive independently of the mayor and councillors.

Section 99A of the Local Government Act 2002 sets out the information that must be included in the report and its timing. It includes information previously published in other council documents including long term plans, annual plans and annual reports. As such the information reflects the policy and service delivery direction of the current council.

The pre-election report has a particular focus on how the council is performing financially, including the current financial position and key spending issues over the coming years. It provides historic information for the past three years, an overview of the current election year and council's planned financial position for the next three years. It also outlines council's broader financial goals, which are included in its long term plan.

The pre-election report will be available from the council's website in July 2019. Candidates are advised to read the report when it becomes available.

Role of Elected Members– Ashburton Licensing Trust

The Ashburton Licensing Trust (ALT) is a community owned business that operates in the property/hospitality industry within the Ashburton District as well as holding other managed investments. This area is defined by boundary lines drawn on historic parliamentary electorate boundaries. In broad terms, it embraces the Ashburton District territorial area excluding a strip from Methven through Rokeby, Rakaia, Chertsey and Dorie to the coast.

Following the result of the 2004 community vote the Trust's historic trading position changed and as a consequence, the Trust can own and trade in businesses outside its geographical boundaries. In early 2016 the Trust made the decision to exit the operation of most of its hospitality venues and move to becoming a landlord at these sites. In 2018 the Trust board resolved to reconstitute as a Community Trust and become known as the Braided Rivers Community Trust (BRCT). As at May 2019 the Trust awaits confirmation from the Minister of Justice that this change has been approved.

If elected as a member of the Ashburton Licensing Trust Board, you are entitled to a present fee of $280 less Withholding Tax for every official meeting. An official meeting is deemed to be a meeting where minutes are kept. The President, who is elected by the members of the Board, receives a present honorarium of $20,000. The fees are prescribed by the Licensing Trust Act.

Meetings are presently held on a monthly basis, normally on the second Thursday with a commencement time of 4:30pm. There may be need, from time to time, to address issues outside this time frame and notice of an additional meeting will be communicated in due course.

As a public entity, the Trust is subject to public audit requirements. The Auditor General or agent must annually provide an audit certificate. This ensures robust policies and financial and management systems are in place as well as placing transparency and accountability on Board members.

The Trust, as a community owned business rewards its owners (the Ashburton District community as outlined by the geographical area outlined above) by way of grants to community projects or causes. The newly adopted policy allows for up to $100,000 to be distributed annually during its transition period which runs until March 2023.

If elected to the ALT Board you will also automatically (unless you decline to do so) become involved with the Lion Foundation's Net Proceeds Committee (NPC). The Lion Foundation Net Proceeds Committee ensures that all profits derived from the proceeds of Lion Foundation gaming machines operated in the Mid Canterbury area are made to the various organisations, clubs events etc in accordance with the Lion Foundation 2008 Trust deed and NPC Committee policy but always subject to Government policy as specified in the Gambling Act 2003. No fees are paid to members for their contributions to NPC activities.

In May 2007, the Ashburton Licensing Trust established a further charitable entity now known as Somerset Ashburton Trust. The objective of this Trust is to 'ring-fence' some Ashburton Licensing Trust assets and in the medium and longer term to provide another source of community funding. Somerset Ashburton Trust owns one subsidiary charitable company namely Somerset Ashburton Limited which owns the building known as Somerset House. As a Board Member of the Ashburton Licensing Trust, you will be automatically appointed a Trustee of the Somerset Ashburton Trust and be appointed a Director on the Board of Somerset Ashburton Limited. You retain the right to decline to be a Trustee or Director of either or both entities should you so wish. As these are regarded as charitable entities, no fees are presently paid to Directors.

Since the result of the 2004 community vote, much greater commercial pressure has been placed on ALT activities. This has resulted in the elected members becoming, in essence, the Board of Directors of the Trust's trading and business operation. If elected, it may possibly be your first role as a 'company Director'.

A set of guidelines is outlined below to assist you.

In addition to the Licensing Trust Act, there are many other duties and responsibilities placed on Directors as a result of important legislation. The legislation includes, but is not limited to, The Income Tax Act, the Sale & Supply of Alcohol Act and the Resource Management Act. This is in addition to The Employment Relations Act and associated H&S and ACC requirements. It is highly recommended that Directors consider seeking specialist advice in responding to legislative obligations.

Members must act honestly, in good faith, and in the best interests of the Trust. In this context, the Trust means the shareholders or members as a whole. No special consideration should be given to any particular interest group of the Trustees or other stakeholders unless there is general agreement amongst the Trustees (members) to that effect. This is both a general law duty as well as a statutory duty. The Courts have repeatedly confirmed that Directors owe their duty to the company as a whole and not to any particular interests or group of shareholders and for Licensing Trusts this would extend to any specific section or constituency within the electoral district.

Members must use the powers vested in them properly and for the best interests of the Trust.

They cannot allow a conflict of duty and interest to arise. Conflicts can arise not merely because Members choose to further their own interests at the expense of the Trust, but also if they favour outside interests at the expense of the interests of the Trust. Where there is potential conflict in legitimate business dealings between the company and a member in a personal capacity, the Member must withdraw from the decision making process. Conflicts of interest are a particularly sensitive issue and one which is attracting a great deal of focus during the audit process.

Members must not use their position for their own or a third party's possible advantage (or to the possible detriment of the Trust) unless this course of action is consented to by the Trust. This consent can only be given after full disclosure of all the relevant facts have been made to the Trust and the affected Member(s) have withdrawn from the decision making process. The law can require Members to account to it for any gain made from the relevant authority.

Members must not use confidential information obtained by them in their capacity as Members improperly, unless, of course, consent in the same terms as the previous rule is provided by the Trust. This rule prohibits Members from disseminating such information to outsiders unless they are given permission by the Trust to do so. This obligation to confidentiality overrides any perceived sectional obligation individual Members may believe they have to individuals or groups.

Members must exercise their powers with appropriate care and diligence that is reasonable in all of the circumstances. Some organisations have introduced an important safe harbour for Members known commonly as the 'business judgment rule' which can excuse Members from liability in relation to a transaction/ action.

If members can demonstrate:

- a) Their decisions are made in good faith, and
- b) They have no personal interest in the subject matter of the relevant decision, and
- c) They appropriately inform themselves about the relevant subject matter, and
- d) They rationally believe that the decision is taken in the best interests of the Trust, then this can be referred to as a business judgement.

In all of their activities, the Members of course may rely on, and often do rely on, the expertise of financial and other employees of the Trust.

Members are entitled to seek information in relation to the Trust's activities and business decisions. These requests should be made at Board meetings. Care needs to be exercised when seeking information that the governance and management roles are not compromised.

Information is provided to Members on the basis and understanding that they will keep the information confidential and will not disseminate it to the public either verbally or through the printed or electronic press.

Any dispute or difference of opinion between Members should be raised with the Board and debated by the Board in a full meeting environment.

Electoral Systems

Two electoral systems will be operating side by side for the 2019 local government elections. These are:

- First Past the Post (FPP)
- Single Transferable Voting (STV).

Organisations using FPP in 2019 are:

- Ashburton District Council
- Canterbury Regional Council (ECan)
- Ashburton Licensing Trust

Organisations using STV in 2019 are:

- Canterbury District Health Board

Briefly, the FPP Electoral system consists of the following:

- Electors vote by indicating their preferred candidate(s) with a tick.
- Voters must not tick more than the number of places to be filled.
- The candidate that receives the most votes is declared the winner, regardless of the proportion of votes that candidate obtained.

Briefly, the STV Electoral system consists of the following:

- Voters receive a single (transferable) vote irrespective of the number of vacancies.
- Voters rank the candidates in order of preference, by writing a "1" next to the name of their most preferred candidate, then a "2" next to the name of the next preferred candidate and so on.
- Voters can rank as few or as many candidates as they wish.
- To be elected, a candidate must reach a "quota" of votes, which is based on the number of vacancies and the number of valid votes.
- When votes are counted, all the first preferences are allocated first.
- A candidate who reaches the quota first is elected. If there is more than one vacancy, and a candidate gets more votes than the quota, a proportion of each vote for that candidate is transferred to the voter's second preference. If, as a result, another candidate gets more votes than the quota, a proportion is transferred to the third preferences, and so on.
- If insufficient candidates reach the quota after the first preferences are allocated and any surplus votes are transferred, then the candidate who received the fewest votes is eliminated and each vote for that candidate is transferred to the voter's second preference. This process is repeated until enough candidates reach the quota to fill all the vacancies.

More information on STV can be accessed from the Department of Internal Affairs website www.stv.org.nz.

Candidate Eligibility

A candidate for local authority elections must be:

1. Enrolled on a parliamentary electoral roll somewhere in New Zealand; and

- e. A candidate cannot be a person concerned or interested in contracts over $25,000 with the territorial local authority (Section 3(1) Local Authorities (Members' Interests) Act 1968). This restriction is waived if prior approval from the office of the Auditor General is obtained.

Further information from the OAG is available on their website here: www.oag.govt.nz/2010/lamia

Under the Act there are a number of exceptions to the disqualification rule in section 3. Certain types of contracts will not disqualify a candidate from election. A candidate who has a contract that falls within any of the following categories will not be disqualified:

- Before the election, all of the candidate's obligations (or candidate's company's obligations) in respect of the contract have been performed and the amount to be paid by the council has been fixed (whether or not it has been paid); or
- Although the candidate's obligations (or candidate's company's obligations) under the contract have not been performed before the election, the amount to be paid by the council is already fixed (subject to amendments and additions as allowed for in the contract), whether or not it has been paid; or

- Although the candidate's obligations (or candidate's company's obligations) under the contract have not been performed before the election, either:
 - The contract's duration does not exceed 12 months; or
 - The contract is relinquished (with the authority's consent) within a month of the candidate becoming a member and before he or she starts to act as a member.

Further information on application of these points should be made with the Office of the Auditor General—at lamia@oag.govt.nz or ph (04) 917 1500.

- f. An employee of Ashburton District Council who is elected as mayor or councillor must resign from his/her position as an employee of the council before taking up his/her elected position (Section 41 (5) Local Government Act 2002).

Notes:

- i. Candidates for mayor may also stand for and/or a community board if they wish (and vice versa).
- ii. Candidates are required to record on the nomination paper if they are standing for election in any other elections in New Zealand.
- iii. Candidates need not necessarily be a resident or ratepayer of the ward or community board in which they are seeking election, or for that matter, Ashburton District, but candidates are required to record on the nomination paper if they reside in the election area or not.
- iv. Section 60 of the Local Electoral Act 2001 states:
If the Electoral Officer receives advice before the close of nominations that a candidate is, or has become, incapable under any Act of holding the office for which he or she is a candidate, that candidate's nomination must be treated in all respects as if it had not been made.
- v. There are no longer restrictions applying specifically to Police employees wishing to stand in Council elections.

For CDHB candidate eligibility please refer to the separate candidate handbook for the CDHB, but a candidate for mayor and council may also seek nomination to the CDHB.

Evidence of NZ Citizenship

It is now a requirement of the nomination process that all candidates provide evidence of their NZ citizenship.

This is to be provided at the time of candidate nomination. Acceptable evidence includes a copy of NZ Passport, NZ birth certificate, or NZ citizenship documentation.

Nominations

Nominations open on Friday 19 July 2019 and close at 12 noon on Friday 16 August 2019.

Each candidate must be nominated on the official nomination paper available during normal office hours from the following sources:

- By phoning toll free number 0800 666 928
- Ashburton District Council's office at 5 Baring Square West, Ashburton
- by phoning the Ashburton District Council on (03) 307 7700
- Or from Council's website www.ashburtondc.govt.nz

Completion of Nomination Paper

Each nomination paper must have the consent of the candidate and be nominated by two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the district, ward, community board or licensing trust. (e.g. if a person wishes to stand for election to a ward, then that person must be nominated by two electors from the ward).

A candidate cannot nominate himself/herself.

If a candidate is unable to sign the nomination paper (e.g. absent overseas), a letter of consent signed by the candidate is acceptable to attach to the nomination paper. A scanned copy of a completed nomination paper will also be accepted, provided the nomination deposit payment (or evidence thereof) is received in time.

Other Names

If a candidate is commonly known in the community by a slightly different name (e.g. Edward Smith is commonly known as Ted Smith) and has been known by this name for at least the last six months (to the satisfaction of the electoral officer), the commonly known name may appear on the voting paper.

Titles

Titles (i.e. Dr, JP, Sir, Dame etc) are not permitted next to the candidate's names on the voting paper or profile statement, but can be included as part of the candidate's 150 word profile text if desired.

Residency in Area

A candidate must declare if they reside in the area of election or not. This is shown at the top of the profile statement but does not count as part of the 150 word profile.

Standing in Other Elections in New Zealand

A candidate must declare if they are standing for any other elections in New Zealand at these triennial elections. This is shown at the top of the profile statement but does not count as part of the 150 word profile.

Affiliation

The nomination paper provides for a party affiliation or other designation.

Individual candidates not part of a political party may wish to nominate their designation as "Independent" or leave as blank (if left blank, nothing will show alongside the name on the voting paper).

A candidate requiring a specific party affiliation must have authority to adopt the affiliation from the party concerned (i.e. a party letterhead or letter of consent are acceptable). This is a safety measure to avoid any illegal adoption of party affiliations.

No party affiliation or other designation that is offensive in nature or likely to confuse or mislead electors will be accepted.

Submitting the Nomination Documents

Nomination papers for the Ashburton District Council and Ashburton Licensing Trust elections can be lodged at the Ashburton District Council main office at 5 Baring Square, Ashburton or posted to the Electoral Officer, C/- PO Box 3138 Christchurch 8140 or emailed to phillipa.clark@adc.govt.nz

Ashburton District Council's office hours for lodgement are:

Mon-Wed and Fri 8.30 am to 5.00 pm, except on 16 August when 12 noon is the cut-off time for lodgement. On Thursdays the office hours are 9.00 am to 5 pm.

- All nomination documents must be submitted at the same time, i.e. nomination paper, candidate profile statement, evidence of NZ citizenship, photo, and nomination deposit. A nomination will not be accepted if any components are missing.
- Nomination papers for the Canterbury Regional Council are to be lodged direct with the Canterbury Regional Council (ECan) at either of their Christchurch or Timaru offices. These nominations cannot be lodged with Ashburton District Council.
- Nomination papers for the Canterbury District Health Board should be lodged at the Christchurch City Council office, 64 Hereford Street, Christchurch. These nominations cannot be lodged with Ashburton District Council.

Once lodged, nomination papers are checked to ensure the candidate is eligible (name appears on a parliamentary roll) and the nominators are two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the relevant ward or district as a whole.

Should a nomination paper be lodged late on the morning nominations close, and be incorrectly completed or ineligible nominators are provided, there may not be enough time to correct the situation and the nomination paper could be invalidated.

Candidate Details

Confirmed candidate details will be made available from the council website. The details will be updated on a regular basis throughout the nomination period and will include at least the candidate name and any affiliation claimed.

As soon as possible after nominations have closed a file of candidate contact details will be available for download from the council's website. Candidates may be contacted by journalists, advertisers, pollsters and other groups interested in election matters.

Nomination Deposits

Each nomination paper lodged, requires a deposit of $200 (including GST). If an election is required the deposit is refunded if the candidate polls greater than 25% of the lowest successful candidate for each election issue. The deposit is also refunded if no election is required.

Payment of the nomination deposit can be made by cash, EFTPOS or online banking. Should an online banking transaction be dishonoured or declined, the nomination becomes invalid as the deposit has not lawfully been made. If this occurs after the close of nominations, then the nomination is invalid and the candidate will be withdrawn.

Cheque payments of nomination deposits will not be accepted.

Payment can be made by online banking. Details for the payment of the deposit by online banking are shown on page 2 of the nomination paper. If paying by online banking, evidence of the transaction must be provided at the time the nomination documents are submitted, i.e. a print out of the transaction receipt. The nomination paper also sets out the reference and code details required for each online payment.

Nomination papers, with the deposit, evidence of NZ citizenship, candidate profile statement and photograph, can be sent to the electoral officer or deputy electoral officer by mail or email, but should they be received after the close of nominations, the nomination is invalid.

Nomination documents can be scanned as pdfs and emailed to the EO, including evidence of the $200 deposit if made by online banking. Photos are to be scanned as jpgs.

It is the responsibility of the candidate to ensure all nomination documents are submitted together and that they are all correct.

The lodgement of nomination documents should not be left to the last minute.

Nominations close at 12 noon, Friday 16 August 2019.

Candidate Withdrawals

A candidate can withdraw their nomination by application to the Electoral Officer up to the close of nominations i.e. 12 noon, Friday 16 August 2019.

Candidates cannot strategically or politically withdraw their nomination once nominations have closed. Candidates may only withdraw after the close of nominations for medical reasons, i.e. incapacity.

A medical certificate must be provided for a withdrawal notice to be accepted by the Electoral Officer. An application can be made by a candidate or an agent on their behalf.

Candidates who have a Protection of Property Rights Court Order

Clause 5(1)(b) of Schedule 7 of the Local Government Act 2002 precludes anyone with a property court order made under s31 of the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Act 1988 from taking office as an Elected Member of the Council. If this was to happen, a by-election would have to be held because the candidate could not take up the office they were elected to.

It is a criminal offence under s121 of the Local Electoral Act 2001 to stand as a candidate, or nominate someone, who is incapable of taking up office. That would include cases where a candidate has a s31 property order in place. If the Electoral Officer receives a nomination from someone who they discover before the close of nominations has a property order in place, and is therefore incapable of holding office, the nomination will be withdrawn in accordance with s60(4) of the Local Electoral Act, and the matter may be referred to the Police. If the Electoral Officer discovers this after the close of nominations, they must give public notice of the illegal nomination, and report the matter to the Police. These steps are necessary to ensure that people do not vote for candidates who cannot hold office.

This restriction also applies to District Health Board elections. Under s30(2) of the Crown Entities Act 2004, a person who is subject to a property order under the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Act 1988 cannot be a candidate.

Candidate Profile Statements

The Local Electoral Act allows for candidate profile statements (CPS) to be provided by each candidate with the completed nomination form. If an election is required these are then collated by the electoral officer and forwarded to electors in a booklet with the voting papers. Refer also to the notes listed in Appendix 1 for word limits and translation requirements.

Candidate profile statements must be provided electronically via email or on a media device, in a MS Word document that has been spell checked. As the electoral officer could receive dozens of profiles, consistent format of delivery and content is required (refer to guidelines below).

Candidate profile statements are governed by Sections 61 and 62 of the Act.

If the nomination forms are being personally delivered, a hard copy format of the profile must be provided at the same time. Hand written profiles will not be accepted.

Format of Candidate Profile Statements

The format requirements for profiles are:

The English text must be plain text, in paragraphs, with no special formatting, i.e.

- No bold, italic, underlining etc.
- No tabs
- No quote marks
- No accent marks (this restriction is in English text only)
- No bullet points

The profiles will be loaded into software provided by the printer that will automatically apply the required font, type size, line spacings etc. If there is no profile statement or photo from a candidate, then "No Profile Statement and/or Photo provided." text or similar will be printed in the profile book.

Any non-English candidate profile content must be supplied with the following formatting:

- Font—Times New Roman (or Equivalent)
- Point Size—9 point size, 11 point line spacing
- No special formatting of text – e.g. no bolding, no italics, no underlines, no quote marks, etc.

Translations

The following contact details are given for a translation company, for those candidates who are unable to prepare the translation image themselves or do not know of anyone to do this for them:

Pacific International Translations (NZ) Ltd 4/203 Queen Street, Auckland. Phone: 09 9135290 Fax: 09 9135291

Email: info@pactrans.co.nz

The translation service will provide the translations in the above format to meet the requirements of the printer, the cost of which is to be met by the candidate.

Candidate Photos

Candidates may also submit a recent (less than 12 months) colour photograph for inclusion with the candidate profile statement in the booklet to accompany the voting papers. Photos should also be provided electronically, on a media device, or as an attachment to an email to the electoral officer.

If hard copy photographs are provided, then two copies of each photo should be provided with the candidate's name clearly printed on the rear of each photograph (care needs to be taken when labelling hard copies of photos to ensure the photo image is not damaged in the process). Photos will not be returned to candidates.

Format of Candidate Photos

Candidate photos are to be a head and shoulders shot only, with nothing else in the photo, i.e. no hats, sunglasses, pets, external objects or impediments, or other people. They should be in colour. If necessary the EO will crop the photo accordingly but the onus is on the candidate to provide a photo of the candidate only that complies with this format.

Electronic copies of photos should be scanned as a jpeg at a minimum of 600 dpi.

Any queries regarding the format of photos and profiles are to be made to the EO.

Note: The onus is on the candidate to ensure that all nomination documents including the profile and photo are submitted to the electoral officer by 12 noon, Friday 16 August 2019.

Correctness of Profile Statements

The candidate is responsible for ensuring that the candidate profile statement contains correct grammar, spelling, punctuation, etc. The electoral officer may make corrections to the statement without affecting content but accepts no responsibility to make any correction. The candidate should ensure the statement is correct when submitted and not expect any corrections to be applied.

The electoral officer is not required to verify or investigate any information included in a candidate profile statement.

The electoral officer will take no responsibility for the accuracy of the content. A disclaimer concerning the accuracy of the information contained in the statements will be published in the profile statement booklet.

If the profile statement or photo does not comply with the legislative requirements, the electoral officer will as soon as practicable, return the statement to the candidate and specify his/her concerns and the reasons therefore. The candidate will then have up to three (3) days to submit an amended candidate profile statement to the electoral officer.

A candidate is to be treated as having failed to provide a candidate profile statement, if the candidate:

- fails to submit an amended candidate profile statement within the requested period, or
- submits an amended candidate profile statement that, in the opinion of the electoral officer, does not comply with the requirements.

Where the electoral officer is not satisfied that the candidate profile statement complies and cannot reach agreement with the candidate within the period specified, but the candidate has submitted a suitable photograph, the electoral officer will act as if the written part of the statement was never received but still publish the photograph in the candidate profile booklet to be included with the voting paper sent to each elector, as well as a message to the effect that a statement was not supplied.

Campaigning, Council Resources and Social Media

Election campaigning can commence anytime but should cease by the close of voting, i.e. 12 noon, Saturday 12 October 2019.

There are generally no rules around conduct of campaigning by candidates, although there are certain election offences, which are detailed for your information in this guide, see Appendix 6. Please refer to them for your own protection.

No election material can contain:

- any untrue statement defamatory of any candidate and calculated to influence the vote of any elector.
- an imitation voting paper which has the names of the candidates with any direction or indication as to the candidate a person should vote for, or in any way contains such direction or indication likely to influence the voter.

Voting papers should not be collected from electors by candidates or their assistants. Each elector is required by law to post or deliver his or her own voting paper to the electoral officer or official voting boxes located at Ashburton District Council service centres or libraries.

Council Resources

Candidates are not permitted to use council resources for campaigning purposes. Council resources includes but are not limited to council's logo and branding, website, facebook page, twitter account, any forms of social media, computers, email, mobile phones, faxes, stationery, photocopiers, printers, stamps, cars, meeting rooms and venues (except those available for public hire).

Election Advertising and Authorisation on Campaign Material

Election advertising, using any media, including social media, must identify the person under whose authority they have been produced, as per sections 113-115 of the Local Electoral Act 2001.

This means that for posters, adverts, billboards, flyers, vehicle signage, websites, Facebook pages etc, each advertising item must have a sentence at the bottom saying that it is authorised by the candidate or agent, i.e. "Authorised by Joe Citizen, 20 Main St, Tinseltown." This authorisation must be clearly visible on any campaigning material including signs and billboards

Please note: a physical address must be provided in any authorisation text, i.e. it cannot be a PO Box, Private Bag or a rural delivery number. There must be a reasonable expectation that anyone wishing to discuss the advertising can do so with the candidate or their agent at the address listed. The use of a council building address is not permitted in the authorisation address.

Advertising Standards Code for Campaign Material

Candidates are reminded to be socially responsible and truthful with the content of their campaign material. Campaign advertisements are subject to the Advertising Standards Authority (ASA) Code. Wherever facts are quoted, the Code is strict that the facts must be correct, however, where a person holds a broad view or opinion, the Code allows them to do so. The ASA settles disputes during elections within two to three days, and take complaints from electoral officers and the public. The usual penalty for breaches of the code is for the advertising to be removed.

N.B. The cost of framing to hold up an election sign is not an item of campaign expenditure.

Campaign Expenditure Limits

Candidates have campaign expenditure limits and are required to file a return to the electoral officer after the election.

Campaign expenditure is all expenses relating to the campaign from the period 3 months before election day, i.e. all expenditure from 12 July 2019 to 12 October 2019 plus any apportioned costs of any election campaigning carried out prior to 12 July 2019 (refer S.112 LEA 2001).

If a candidate is standing for more than one position (e.g. mayor and councillor) then the higher limit applies (not both combined).

The campaign expenditure levels for Ashburton District are:

1. Mayoralty

The total electoral expenses (inclusive of goods and services tax) of a candidate must not exceed $20,000 if any local government area over which the election is held has a population smaller than 39,999 and larger than 20,000.

Return of electoral expenses

Each candidate is required to keep a record of all campaign election expenses, and must furnish a return to the Electoral Officer within 55 days of the election result being declared, estimated to be no later than Wednesday 18 December 2019.

The return of electoral expenses and electoral donations form once returned becomes a public document and can be inspected by any person for a period of 7 years after receipt. The Electoral Officer is required to make the expenditure return and any supporting documents available on Council's website for seven years.

A model election expenses return form is attached as Appendix 2. The relevant sections of the Local Electoral Act 2001 on election expenses is attached as Appendix 3.

Note:

- 1) Candidates are required to keep evidence of any election expenses for amounts exceeding $200.
- 2) All candidates must submit a return of election expenses and donations form even if no expenses have been incurred or donations received.

Candidate Expenses

Sec 104 of the Local Electoral Act lists the following definition of electoral expenses, in relation to a candidate at an election,—

- (a) Means expenses that are incurred by or on behalf of the candidate in respect of any electoral activity; and
- (b) includes expenses that are incurred by or on behalf of the candidate, before or after the applicable period before the close of polling day, in respect of any electoral activity; and
- (c) includes the reasonable market value of any materials applied in respect of any electoral activity that are given to the candidate or that are provided to the candidate free of charge or below reasonable market value; and
- (d) includes the cost of any printing or postage in respect of any electoral activity, whether or not the expenses in respect of the printing or postage are incurred by or on behalf of the candidate; but
- (e) does not include the expenses of operating a vehicle on which election advertising appears if that vehicle is used in good faith by the candidate as the candidate's personal means of transport; and
- (f) does not include expenses incurred by the candidate in preparing a candidate profile statement; and
- (g) does not include the labour of any person that is provided to the candidate free of charge by that person; and
- (h) does not include the cost of any framework (other than a commercial framework) that supports a hoarding on which an advertisement is displayed.

Note – the $200 nomination deposit fee is not an electoral expense.

Definition of electoral donation

An electoral donation is a donation of money, goods or services that is made for use in a candidate's election campaign (section 103A LEA). Electoral donations and contributions to donations, of more than $1500 incl. GST are required to be declared in the candidate's return of donations and expenses. A series of donations made by one person that adds up to more than $1500 must also be declared. An electoral donation includes:

- where a candidate is provided with goods or services free of charge that have a reasonable market value greater than $300
- where a candidate is provided with discounted goods or services and the reasonable market value of the goods or services is greater than $300, the difference between the contract or agreed price and the reasonable market value of those goods and services is a donation
- where a candidate sells over-valued goods or services, the difference between the price paid and the reasonable market value is a donation, for example a fundraising auction or dinner.

The following are not candidate donations:

- volunteer labour
- goods or services provided free of charge to a candidate, or to any person on the candidate's behalf that have a reasonable market value of $300 or less
- money provided by the candidate for his or her own campaign.

If a person or organisation gives or pays for goods or services that would otherwise be candidate election expenses, the reasonable market value of those items, whatever their value, should be recorded as an election expense. If the reasonable market value of the items exceeds $300 it should also be recorded as a donation.

Donations made up of contributions

Donations to candidates can be made up of pooled funds contributed by more than one person (referred to in the Act as donations funded from contributions). These types of donations include, for example, campaign donations made through a trust, or where there is a fundraising collection for a candidate's campaign (section 103A LEA). The total proceeds of a collection are treated as a donation under the Act. The person who collects the money will normally be the donor. The individuals who contribute to the collection are contributors for the purposes of the Act. If an electoral donation, other than an anonymous donation, is made up of contributions, the transmitter or donor must tell the candidate:

- the name and address of the donor
- whether the donation is made up of contributions
- the total amount of individual contributions of $1500 or less
- in the case of individual contributions greater than $1500, the name, address, and contribution of each contributor.

If the candidate knows, or has reasonable grounds to believe, that the donor has failed to supply information about contributions, the whole donation must be returned to the donor.

Transmitted donations

A donation can be made either directly by the donor to the candidate or indirectly by a transmitter who transmits a donation to the candidate on someone else's behalf, for example via a lawyer's trust fund. Any person who receives a candidate donation on the candidate's behalf must transmit it to the candidate within 10 working days. When transmitting a donation, the transmitter must tell the candidate:

- that the donation is being transmitted on behalf of a donor
- the name and address of the donor
- whether the donation is made up of contributions
- the total amount of contributions of $1500 or less
- in the case of contributions greater than $1500, the name, address, and contribution of each contributor.

Where a transmitter does not disclose the name and address of the donor, the donation must be treated as an anonymous donation (see below).

Anonymous donations

Candidates are not permitted to retain anonymous donations exceeding $1500. An anonymous donation is a donation made in such a way that the candidate who receives the donation does not know the identity of the donor and could not, in the circumstances, reasonably be expected to know the identity of the donor (section 103A LEA). If a candidate receives an anonymous donation greater than $1500, he or she may retain $1500 of that donation. The balance of the donation must, within 20 working days of receipt, be paid to the electoral officer for payment into the general fund of the local authority.

Applicable period for donations

There is no provision within the Local Electoral Act 2001 or its regulations specifying a period for recording or declaring donations. On that basis, all qualifying donations contributed for use in a candidate's election campaign for the 2019 triennial local body elections should be recorded and included in the candidate's return of election expenses and donations.

Ashburton District Council's Social Media Guidelines for Candidates

The official pre-election period is the three months before the local election. In 2019, this begins Friday 12 July.

Council's social media channels are Council resources and will remain neutral at all times. Council will promote elections and the importance of voting, but will not associate these posts with any candidates.

Elected members seeking re-election need to be aware of Council's social media guidelines for candidates and refrain from commenting on, sharing, or otherwise using council social media channels for campaigning purposes – note this also applies outside of the pre-election period.

Candidates must understand and be aware of their social media presence for campaigning purposes at all times. The following guidelines apply:

- Council's social media channels must not be used by anyone for campaigning purposes. Any campaign-related material, positive or negative, made by any individual specifically relating to their own or someone else's nomination, intention to run for council or election campaign, will be removed immediately.
- Council and council officers' social media accounts will not follow any candidates during the pre-election period. This may result in your account being unfollowed.
- Candidates may not rate, review, check-in or tag the Council's social media channels in their own posts or comments.
- Candidates may not reply to comments on council's social media posts encouraging people to like or follow their own social media accounts. Any posts that do this will be removed immediately. Continued indiscretions may result in the candidate being blocked from using / following these accounts for the pre-election period.
- Candidates own Facebook pages and social media channels (if they are used for campaigning purposes) must have the appropriate authorisation at all times.
- Candidates must not link their own Facebook pages and social media channels to the Council's Facebook and social channels during the pre-election period.
- During the lead up to the elections, the sitting mayor and councillors may be used in social media posts where it is appropriate and is considered 'business as usual' to use them. This may be in images or quotes.

Ashburton District Council's Rules on Election Signs

1. Location of Election Signs

Election signs are permitted on private property (with the landowner's consent) and must comply with the Building Act 2004, Electoral Act 1993, NZTA's bylaws and the Ashburton District Plan.

www.ashburtondc.govt.nz/our-services/planning-guidance-and-resource-consents

Permitted signs must also meet the following conditions:

- For Council elections signs may not be displayed for more than three months prior to election day (i.e. Saturday 12 October 2019)
- Only one election sign per candidate is permitted at each site
- The maximum permitted sign size for a temporary election sign is 5m²
- All signs must be removed by midnight on Sunday 13 October 2019 (the day after election day)
- Election signs for local authority elections are subject to the authorisation requirements as set out in the Local Electoral Act 2001. Section 113 of the Act requires that advertising must state who has authorised the advertising and that statement must identify the address of their physical place of residence or business.

2. Non-complying Signs

- Election signs are not permitted on Council reserves, streets or other Council administered property sites available for the siting of signs. This includes land owned by Council but leased to another organisation. The previous Council sites located in Tinwald and in the area just north of the town are no longer permitted sites.
- Election signs may not be affixed to vehicles or trailers, and parked in a public place, road, public property or private property so as to be visible from a public place. This does not apply to advertising painted, or attached directly, onto vehicles or trailers and incidental to the primary use of that vehicle or trailer.
- It is the responsibility of the owner of each election sign to ensure that their sign and supporting structure do not pose any danger to property, traffic and public. Council takes no responsibility for hazardous signs. Council's Enforcement Officer may remove any sign that does not comply with the above requirements and the sign owner will be held liable for any damages incurred.

NZTA Guidelines for Managing Electioneering Signs on State Highways

The guideline objectives are to minimise the potential for road crashes arising from drivers being distracted by indiscriminate installation of electioneering signs and to ensure consistency of application of NZTA policy on such signs with minimal involvement by NZTA.

1. On Rural State Highway Reserves [NZTA to Manage]

1.1 Signs should generally be located off state highway reserves. In exceptional circumstances only, signs may be erected within the state highway reserve with the written approval of state highway managers.

1.2 For the exceptional circumstance to apply, the applicant must be able to demonstrate that all other options have been exhausted and that there is no other appropriate safe location for the sign.

1.3 Signs must:

- not be reflectorised;
- be located generally giving consideration to visibility and traffic safety;
- not be on or adjacent to motorways;
- not be erected in a manner that will create distraction or danger to road users; and
- not imitate any official traffic signs.

1.4 For safety reasons, vehicle mounted signs situated on state highway reserves are not permitted.

1.5 To minimise staff involvement, NZTA shall:

- act quickly on inquiries from political parties and the public;
- instruct network consultants to inspect all state highway's for compliance every 7 to 10 days;
- phone/fax the parties/candidates where there is non compliance, requesting action/removal within 48 hours; and
- instruct consultants to remove the signs if there is no action after 48 hours.

1.6 Where any sign is erected without NZTA approval in an obviously unsafe location it must be removed immediately and stored undamaged. The party must then be advised of the storage location for retrieval at a fee of $50 to cover NZTA costs.

2. On property adjoining rural state highways and on urban state highway reserves and adjoining property [local authorities to manage] (where urban areas relate to state highway's with speed limits of 70 km/h or less).

2.1 NZTA shall refer all applicants/parties to the appropriate local authority.

- 2.2 Although it is expected that local authorities will administer their own controls in terms of district plans, NZTA should make known its views that any signs should meet the NZTA policy requirements set out in paragraphs 1.3 and 1.4 above.
- 2.3 Beyond appropriate liaison with local authorities to convey the above policy, NZTA shall have no other involvement with signs in these areas.

Voting and Processing of Votes

Order of Candidates on the Voting Papers

Ashburton District Council has resolved pursuant to Section 79 of the Local Electoral Act 2001 that the names of the candidates will appear in random order on the voting papers. This means that the candidate names will appear in a different order on each separate voting paper. Barcodes will be printed beside each candidate name for counting purposes.

Special Voting

Special voting documents are available to electors:

- whose names do not appear on the final electoral roll, but who qualify as electors
- who did not receive a voting paper previously posted to them
- who spoil or damage a voting paper previously posted to them.

Special voting documents will be available from Friday 20 September 2019 to 12 noon, Saturday 12 October 2019 at the Ashburton District Council office, 5 Baring Square West, Ashburton.

Special voting documents can be posted directly out to electors. The completed voting paper however, must be in the hands of the electoral officer or the deputy electoral officer by noon on election day, i.e. 12 noon, Saturday 12 October 2019.

Special voters must complete a statutory declaration. This is a legal requirement and a protection for electors against possible duplicate voting.

If an elector requests a special vote and is not on the parliamentary roll (e.g. just turned 18 years of age), the person must enrol on the parliamentary roll by Friday 11 October 2019. An application for registration as a parliamentary elector may be obtained:

- from any Post Shop or
- by telephoning 0800 ENROLNOW (0800 367656) or
- by accessing the Electoral Enrolment Centre website on www.elections.org.nz.

After voting closes, special vote declarations are forwarded to Registrars of Electors for verification that the elector is eligible and has enrolled as a parliamentary elector.

Special voting documents cannot be collected by candidates or their assistants for distribution to electors.

Early Processing of Returned Voting Papers

The electoral officer has decided pursuant to Section 80 of the Local Electoral Act that returned voting papers will be opened and processed during the voting period before the close of voting.

Voting papers for Ashburton District Council are being processed by council's election contractor, electionz.com Ltd. electionz.com will be processing approximately 600,000 voting papers for 42 councils at its processing centre in Christchurch.

The early processing of voting papers involves the following functions:

- opening of envelopes
- extracting of voting papers
- checking for informal or duplicate votes
- electronic capture of valid votes
- no tallying of votes is undertaken until after the close of voting (12 noon, Saturday 12 October 2019).

The early processing functions are undertaken within strict security measures. One or more Justices of the Peace observe all early processing functions, and sign a statement at the end of the processing that all functions were undertaken correctly and conformed with the legal and secrecy requirements.

Candidate's scrutineers are not permitted to observe the early processing functions (refer to Appendix 4).

Election Results

The counting of votes takes place as soon as practicable after 12 noon on Saturday 12 October 2019.

It is expected that a progress result will be released by the electoral officer by 2pm on Saturday 12 October 2019. The preliminary result will be released as soon as all ordinary voting papers have been received and processed at the processing centre. This is likely to be by midday Sunday 13 October, if not before.

Candidates will be advised the progress results on election day—either by e-mail or phone. Only two attempts to communicate the progress result to any candidate will be made. These will be made around the time that progress results are posted to the council website.

Results will be released to candidates and media via email and www.ashburtondc.govt.nz.

There are three types of results.

1. Progress Results

Not all ordinary votes have been counted yet, those votes received on the last morning will still be in transit to the Electoral Officer. Progress results are expected to be available on Saturday 12 October from 2pm as reconciliations and quality assurance checks are completed.

2. Preliminary Results

All ordinary voting papers have been received and counted, but not all special votes. These will be announced on later on Saturday evening or Sunday after we receive the last ordinary voting papers that were delivered to Council offices prior to the close of voting. Results could change.

3. Official Results

All ordinary and special votes have been counted. These will be released by Thursday 17 October, once special votes are confirmed. Results are final.

Recounts and Petitions for Inquiry

A recount can be requested by a candidate within 3 working days after the public declaration of the final election results. This sometimes happens when a result is very close, i.e. less than 5-10 votes, depending on the size of the election.

A candidate must make application to the District Court along with the payment of a $750 deposit. This is usually lodged with the court by a solicitor, so legal advice may be required. The application usually states the reason why a recount should be granted by the Judge. In recent times it has been demonstrated that just because a result is close, that is not necessarily enough of a reason for a recount.

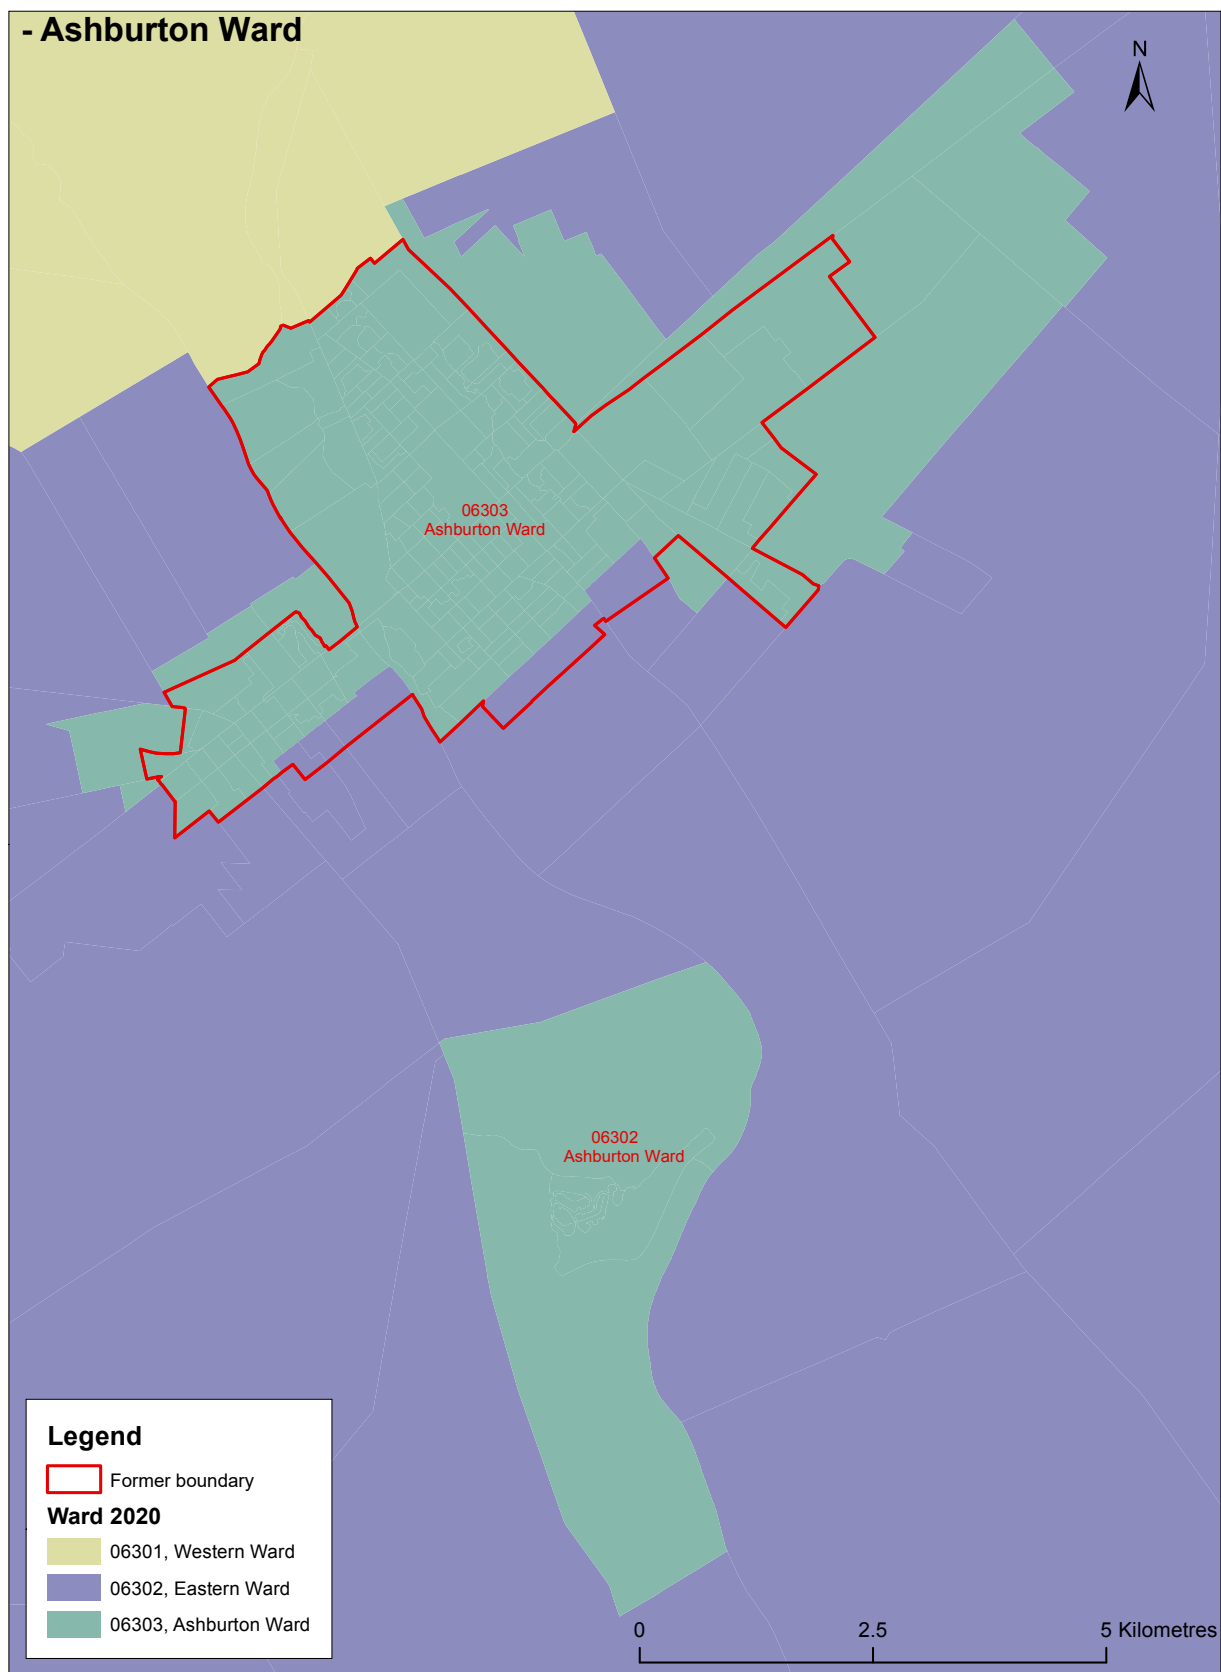

A Petition for Inquiry can be applied for by a candidate or a minimum of 10 electors, if in their opinion the election result is incorrect or may have been compromised. This also has to be made by application to a District Court Judge upon payment of a $750 deposit within 21 days of the official result declaration. Legal advice should be sought by anyone contemplating a Petition for Inquiry.

Candidate Profile Statements

Local Authority Elections 2019

Right to Submit a Candidate Profile Statement (CPS)

Every candidate for election to a local authority may submit a CPS with their nomination (Section 61, Local Electoral Act). This is a permissive right – it is not mandatory to submit a CPS.

Where a candidate is standing for two or more offices, e.g. mayor and councillor – he/she may submit a CPS for each office (Clause 26, Local Electoral Regulations).

Candidate Profile Statement Conditions

- Under Section 61(2)(a) and (3) of the Act and Clause 27 of the Regulations, a CPS
 - if in English or Māori or both, must not exceed 150 words in each of the languages used in the CPS. The information contained in each language must be substantially consistent with the information contained in the other language;
 - in any other language other than English or Māori, must not exceed 150 words, or their equivalent, if symbols are used rather than words. This includes any translation of those words into another language provided by the candidate. Where a CPS is in a language other than English or Māori, then the candidate must provide a CPS in English or Māori.
- Every CPS must be submitted with the candidate's nomination form.
- The content of a CPS, under Section 61(2)(c), must be confined to information:
 - concerning the candidate or any group or organisation the candidate claims affiliation to under S 55(4) of the LEA;
 - on the candidate's policies and intentions if elected.
- A CPS cannot be used to comment on the policies, performance, etc of any other candidate.

A candidate may include with their CPS a recent hard copy photograph of the candidate alone which has been taken within 12 months of the candidate's date of nomination.

Note: Soft (electronic) versions of the candidate photos may be submitted with the CPS. These should be either copied onto a media device or emailed to phillipa.clark@adc.govt.nz.

Photos must be submitted at the same time as all nomination documents and by the close of nominations i.e. on or before 12 noon, Friday 16 August 2019. [Section 61(2)(c) and Clause 28]. (Refer to page 15 for the production specifications for the CPS and candidate photograph).

Duties, Powers and Responsibilities of Electoral Officers

Where an electoral officer is not satisfied that a CPS complies with Section 61(2) and (3), he/she must, under Section 61(4), return the CPS to the candidate specifying the concerns and reasons for them and the period within which an amended CPS may be resubmitted.

A candidate will be treated as having failed to provide a CPS if Section 61(4) applies and he/she fails to submit an amended CPS within the period specified by the electoral officer or submits an amended CPS, which in the electoral officer's opinion, still fails to comply with Section 61(2) and (3).

It is important to note that under Section 61(6), the electoral officer is not required to verify or investigate any information in a CPS may include in or with any CPS a disclaimer concerning the accuracy of the information therein.

The EO is not liable in relation to:

- any statement in or omitted from a CPS; or
- the work of a prudently selected translator; or
- the exercise of the powers and functions conferred on the electoral officer under Section 61.

Distribution of Candidate Profile Statement

- Section 62 of the Act and Clause 29 of the Regulations requires the electoral officer to send to each elector with the voting documents, all CPS's that comply with Section 61, for each candidate in the election for a local government area or subdivision. In addition, a local authority may display CPS's at its offices, or service centres, and publish them on its website as soon as they are ready after nominations have closed.
- Any failure of an electoral officer to comply with Section 62 will not invalidate the election.

Examples of CPS's

A	English					= 150 words
B	Māori					= 150 words
C	English	+		Māori		= 300 words
	(must be substantially consistent with each other)

 - (iii) this Part; or
 - (b) believes for any other reason that an offence has been committed under either of the Parts specified in paragraph (a).

 - (a) report the complaint or belief to the Police; and
 - (b) provide the Police with the details of any inquiries that he or she considers may be relevant.
- 3) Subsection (2) does not prevent any person from reporting an alleged offence to the Police.
- 4) Despite subsection (2), an electoral officer is not required to report the failure by a candidate to file a return under section 112A if the candidate files the return promptly after being required to do so by the electoral officer.

Scrutineers

Role of Scrutineers

- The Local Electoral Act 2001 (LEA) and the Local Electoral Regulations 2001 (LER) do not specify in detail the role of scrutineers. However, the general role of scrutineers is to oversee and observe certain election or poll procedures to ensure they are undertaken fairly and that votes are counted consistently and accurately.
 - The election or poll procedures which scrutineers are statutorily permitted to oversee and observe are:
 - Scrutineering of Roll (Sections 81 and 83 LEA and Clause 55 LER). This involves comparing the rolls used at the election or poll upon which there is recorded the fact that an elector has voted. The objective is to establish any dual voting which is disallowed.
 - Preliminary and Official Counts (Section 84 LEA, and Clauses 59, 60 and 62 LER). The preliminary count involves the first count of votes immediately following close of voting. The outcome is the preliminary result announced on polling day. The official count follows the preliminary count and includes any remaining special votes. It can commence on polling day and due to special voting issues is usually completed on the Monday or Tuesday following polling day.
- Note: With electronic processing, the count processes are computerised tasks undertaken once required reconciliations have been completed. Both counts (preliminary and official) are likely to take several minutes to complete.
- Recount (Section 91 LEA). A recount takes place on the order of a district court judge following an application from a candidate. When required, it involves a recount of the relevant voting documents.
 - In observing the processes above, it is lawful for a scrutineer to pass on information to any person of the names of persons who have voted (Section 68 LEA). The passing on of any other information is not permitted – see offences later in this booklet.
 - Given that the practice has been for all local authority elections to be conducted by postal voting and not by booth voting as per parliamentary elections, scrutineers are less involved in the local elections process than for parliamentary elections.
 - Scrutineers are not entitled or empowered to interfere with the conduct of an election or poll or raise questions of procedure or law with electoral officials. If a scrutineer believes that electoral procedures are not being followed, he or she should draw the matter to the attention of the electoral officer.

Appointment of Scrutineers

- For a local authority election a candidate may appoint one or more scrutineers (Section 66 LEA).
- In relation to a local authority poll, 10 or more electors, who are either in favour of or opposed to the proposal being polled, may appoint 1 or more scrutineers (Section 67 LEA).
- Every scrutineer appointed under Sections 66 or 67 of the Act must be appointed in writing (a model letter of appointment is contained in the back of this section).
- An appointment as scrutineer is not valid unless a copy of the notice of appointment is delivered by the candidate or the 10 electors to the electoral officer. The electoral officer must receive this notice not less than 24 hours before the close of the voting period. The deadline is Friday 11 October 2019 in the case of this year's local authority elections (Section 68(1) LEA). It is suggested that a scrutineer should always carry a copy of this notice when undertaking scrutineering duties.
- Section 68(3) of the Act contains three restrictions on who may be appointed a scrutineer. No person can be a scrutineer if they are:
 - a candidate in the elections; or
 - a member or employee of any local authority or community board for whom the election or poll is being held; or
 - under 18 years of age.

Declaration

- No person appointed as a scrutineer can carry out scrutineering duties until he or she has completed a declaration (Section 14(2) LEA and Clause 91 LER).
- The key obligations for a scrutineer arising from the declaration is that he or she:
 - will well and truly serve in the office of scrutineer; and
 - will not directly or indirectly disclose any fact coming to his or her knowledge at the election or poll that he or she is required by the Act not to disclose.
- A person appointed as a scrutineer must report to the electoral officer or deputy electoral officer on the first day on which he or she is to undertake any scrutineering duty to complete the required declaration. Upon completing the declaration, the scrutineer will be given a 'scrutineer' nametag. This nametag must be returned to the electoral officer when the scrutineer leaves the premises where he or she is acting as a scrutineer.

Information to be Supplied by Electoral Officer

- As soon as practicable following the appointment of a scrutineer, the electoral officer will advise that person of:
 - arrangements for the election or poll process that he or she has been appointed for
 - what restrictions apply to scrutineers; and
 - how that person is expected to conduct themselves.

Arrangements for Roll Scrutiny, Preliminary and Official Counts and any Recount

- The electoral officer will advise the scrutineer:
 - where he or she should go, and at what time, to complete the required declaration before any scrutineering duties can be undertaken
 - when and where any planned briefing of candidates and scrutineers about election processes is to be held
 - when and where any planned briefing of electoral officials about the election or poll process is to be held
 - where the scrutiny of the roll will be conducted (address and office)
 - what days and time that the scrutiny of the roll will take place
 - that the preliminary count of voting documents will commence at 12 noon on Saturday 12 October 2019
 - when and where the official count will commence and take place and on what days it will extend over if there are special votes to clear with the Registrar of Electors
 - on how the preliminary and official counts will be undertaken – manually or electronically
 - if a recount has been ordered by a district court judge, where and when that recount will take place
 - that no remuneration will be paid to any scrutineer by the local authority for the undertaking of scrutineering duties.

Candidates should note that all vote processing will be carried out in Christchurch and that if they wish to appoint scrutineers all costs thereof are to be met by the candidate.

Restrictions on Scrutineers During Election and Poll Processes

- Pursuant to Section 80 of the Act, the EO will process voting documents during the voting period. Scrutineers are prohibited under Section 81 of the Act from being present during the early processing of voting documents. Early processing of voting documents does not involve counting or totalling votes for any candidate for election or for or against any proposal in a poll. Counting of votes can only commence for the preliminary count after the close of voting i.e. after 12 noon, Saturday 12 October 2019.
- It is permissible for a candidate in the case of an election, and for 10 electors in the case of a poll, to appoint more than one scrutineer. However, only one scrutineer for any candidate can be present at the same place to undertake scrutineering duties.
- It is permissible for scrutineers at any time to leave and return to the undertaking of the roll scrutiny, and after close of voting, the preliminary and official counts. Upon returning to the process, a scrutineer has no power or right to expect the electoral officer to go back for his or her benefit and repeat the activities in relation to voting documents that were dealt with in his or her absence. The same practice will apply if a scrutineer is late for the commencement of any of these processes.

Conduct of Scrutineer

- The general role of scrutineers is to oversee and observe that particular procedures at an election or poll are undertaken fairly and that votes are counted fairly and reasonably. As the emphasis in relation to the role of scrutineers is on overseeing and observing, it is expected that scrutineers must not talk to electoral officials involved in the roll scrutiny, the preliminary or official counts or in any recount. If a scrutineer believes that electoral procedures are not being followed he or she should draw the matter to the attention of the electoral officer. It should not be raised with other electoral officials.
- A scrutineer must also not seek from the electoral officer and other electoral officials any progressive voting trends during the preliminary count.
- The scrutiny and the preliminary and official counts are critical processes to the outcome of an election or poll and demand a high level of concentration from electoral officials. Accordingly, it is incumbent upon scrutineers not to distract, annoy, linger close by or talk loudly to one another so as to disrupt or upset any electoral officials.
- In keeping with the needs of electoral staff, scrutineers are not allowed to use or have mobile phones switched on within the area where scrutiny of the roll, the preliminary or official count or a recount is being conducted.

- The LEA and LER are silent on the display of any party affiliation by scrutineers. The adopted policy will be what normally applies to scrutineers at parliamentary elections. This provides for the following items, in party colours but without party name, emblem, slogan or logo, may be worn on the person or displayed in a vehicle:
 - streamers
 - ribbons
 - rosettes (but see also the special rule about party lapel badges below)
 - items of a similar nature.
- Party lapel badges may be worn anywhere on the person. A party lapel badge is any badge or rosette designed to be worn on the lapel and bearing a party name, emblem, slogan or logo. None of the above items may be displayed on bags or briefcases. Political parties will be asked to supply the electoral officer with a sample of their rosette prior to the commencement of the polling period. In the case of this years local authority elections, the polling period commences on Friday 20 September 2019.
- Scrutineers should also bring their own refreshments. The electoral officer will not provide meals and refreshments for scrutineers.

Offences

- Scrutineers can be present at election and poll processes, which will expose them to returned voting documents and information about voting. While scrutineers are permitted to tell any person the names of persons who have voted, under the declaration a scrutineer must not directly or indirectly disclose any fact coming to his or her knowledge at the election or poll that he or she is required by the Act or Regulations not to disclose.
- Should a scrutineer break their declaration and disclose information which is prohibited then they are likely to have committed an offence under one or more of the following provisions of the LEA:
 - Section 123, Offences in respect of official documents
 - Section 129, Infringement of secrecy
 - Section 130, Disclosing voting or state of election or poll.
- These three sections are reprinted in full later. Scrutineers are advised to become familiar with them before they complete their declaration and undertake any scrutineering duties.

Election Offences

The Local Electoral Act 2001 includes provisions relating to offences at elections. In particular, candidates are asked to note the following legal requirements:

- Ensure all election advertising includes a proper authorisation statement. Such a statement will include your name (or your agent's name) and the street address for the appropriate place of residence or business. A website or postal address does not suffice.
- Do not interfere or try to influence anyone who is about to vote. Do not offer to collect, post or deliver to the Council completed voting papers from any other elector.
- Do not give, as part of your campaign, any gift or item of value to any other person. An item of value is anything you would expect to pay for and typically may be useful to the recipient other than as election literature. Examples of such items in the lower value category might include pens, biros, message or note pads, rulers, fridge magnets, key-chains and the like.
- Do not, as part of your campaign, provide anyone with anything they can eat or drink, or with any entertainment or other provision. However, light refreshments provided after any meeting relating to an election does not amount to treating, but such light refreshments probably should not include alcoholic drinks.

The electoral process in New Zealand is jealously guarded and electoral law is written in such a way so as to reinforce this through prescribing high standards for electoral behaviour.

The penalties for election offences differ. For unauthorised advertisements, the penalty is a fine up to $1,000. Other offences could result in a larger fine or imprisonment and, in some cases, loss of office as an elected member.

If the Electoral Officer receives any formal complaint about an offence, or become aware of an offence, the matter will be referred the matter to the Police, as required by the Local Electoral Act 2001. The Electoral Officer generally does not have discretion to refuse to report offences.

Information on advertising and election offences is set out in full below, or in other parts of this handbook for advertising, donations and expenses. The detailed law is a little complex in some instances, so the statements presented above are a simplification of the law and should not be regarded as a substitute for reading the statutory provisions.

Candidates are requested to read the following sections of the Act carefully and to ensure that there is no infringement of these provisions either prior to or during the election:
