

Hi there,

I would like to see an annual extra-ordinary rubbish collection in Ashburton.

This could take a few weeks where householders could place their unwanted property on the roadside for a period of time. These items could then be uplifted by other people to reuse or recycle.

After the time period is up, the remaining items are uplifted and dumped. This should reduce the effort of council staff clearing up fly tipping.

Kind regards

Len Doel