Do you have any other comments?

I agree with the expanding of liquor ban areas in Ashburton (cannot speak for Methven as I am not a Methven resident).

However, I believe that there is one more area in town which could have benefited from liquor ban area regulations imposed in it.

I am talking about Harrison Street in Allenton - especially the part around school and Allenton shops. I live at 50 Harrison Street, and each weekend I find glass bottles and alcohol drink cans on my lawn - people just walk past my house which drinking alcohol and simply throw bottles and cans over my fence (and the fences of my neighbours).

Maybe the problem can be solved by putting more rubbish bins in or by imposing glass ban on the area.

Kind regards

Tetiana
